Citrus County Coin Club- moved our monthly meeting date and location which will hopefully be a temporary situation. As we all know the United States is on alert for terrorist activity in our nation and the world. So, stating that our meetings are being held at the Crystal River National Guard Armory. Because they are on alert, we cannot use the facility. We are temporarily at the Citrus County Chamber of Commerce. We had to move the meeting to the 1st Wednesday also. That being said are meeting opened at 6:30pm, with the pledge and a moment of silence. We had a total of 36 members. Member Walter Meier won the attendance prize. We had some good news; we got our check from F.U.N. for reimbursement of the bus trip to the January show. It paid for the trip as we had 36 riders between the Citrus, West Hernando & Pasco clubs. I would recommend to any of the clubs to participate in this as the trip is worth it. Continuing, we had a silver coin raffle and finally a 60-lot auction. sparky3bear1950@aol.com.
