

Florida United Numismatists

One of the advantages of being a FUN Member club is getting free access to some advertising for your club and its events. We do this by posting your club meetings and shows in the FUN Topics publication and website. We also have a section on <http://www.funtopics.com/clubs.html> called FUN Member Club Announcements.

To effectively utilize these resources some key information must be provided to inform those who are interested. Remember there are a lot people out there who do not know what your club does. Our job is to make that first contact happen.

FUN Member Club Announcements

You can use this area to post information about upcoming events for your Club or show. Example: if the ANA is doing a seminar at your Coin Show let me know in advance and I can post it in this location. There may be others who may drive to your area just to attend these events. Special anniversaries can be announced, is your club having a nice raffle at the show.

In summary, use this area to tell collectors we want you to visit us!
